Establish a healthy equilibrium between hiring employees and improving the rides and facilities as to not prematurely run out of capital throughout your career progress.. However, I still think that this is a fun time, I do prefer the original, but at the time I thought this game was the greatest thing ever! I do feel that the visuals have aged a bit poorly, but the rest of the game is still a lot of fun to play.. You can build a huge park and then take a first person view and 'ride the rides'..
